

REINSTATEMENT OF RUMBLE AFRICA TOURNAMENT SCHEDULED TO TAKE PLACE AT ORIENT THEATRE, EAST LONDON ON SUNDAY, 9 DECEMBER 2018

Following the cancellation notice which was issued by Boxing South Africa on Sunday, 2 December 2018, this serves to provide the latest update on this matter.

Subsequent to the cancellation notice, Rumble Africa Promotions complied with all outstanding requirements including the remainder of the purse money. Boxing South Africa noted with great concern the fact that this only happened outside the approved timelines and therefore at a time when the tournament had already been cancelled. Consequence management in this regard will ensue!

Rumble Africa further submitted a request for Boxing South Africa to kindly review cancellation of the tournament and reinstate its approval. Compelling and humanitarian reasons were advanced and all these had to be weighed carefully, within the context of the boxing regulations as well as the overarching mandate of Boxing South Africa which is the development and promotion of boxing.

Having considered all that, Boxing South Africa saw it appropriate to reinstate the sanctioning of Rumble Africa tournament and to allow this tournament to proceed on Sunday, 9 December 2018 at Orient Theatre, East London as initially scheduled. This decision was not taken lightly!

The key determinant in this regard was assurance that the reinstatement won't adversely impact on the tournament itself nor on any participating parties, more especially the boxing loving community, the sponsors, the broadcaster, BSA personnel and the boxers.

This remains the only cancelled tournament which has been reviewed and reinstated. The approved tournaments that will be taking place this weekend are therefore:

- ✓ Xaba Boxing Promotions tournament at Orient Theatre on Friday, 7 December 2018
- ✓ Golden Gloves Promotions tournament at Emperors Palace on Saturday, 8 December 2018
- ✓ Rumble Africa Promotions tournament at Orient Theatre on Sunday, 9 December 2018
